

BARMBY ON THE MARSH ASSETS

The parish council own's several paths in the village, for which we receive a yearly grant to maintain:

Details available from the parish clerk if required.

We also own the burial ground on the edge of the village, the burial ground at the church now belongs to ERYC.

There is a small paddock of land to the left hand side of the barrage that belongs to the parish council.